ABOUT ANDY

Andy Pursell is a Florida-based singer/songwriter with a rock'n country band. Since picking up the guitar at the age of 18, Andy has performed his music live at venues and festivals across the south, including shows with Alan Jackson, John Michael Montgomery, and Clay Walker to name a few, and was named "favorite new country artist" by the Tampa Bay Music Network.

In 2019, Andy released the country saltwater anthem "Livin' In The Salt Life," the song you want on your playlist when you're heading out to the beach or on the boat to party with friends - beaches, boats, beer, bikinis, banjos, the sun and the sand.

In 2020, the lifestyle apparel brand Salt Life named Andy an official Salt Life Team member, joining fellow country artists Jake Owen and Drake White, and released a new Salt Life version of the video. Andy now regularly attracts hundreds of thousands of viewers to his livestreams and is poised for a national breakthrough.
